SOMETHING MORE ABOUT IMPERIALISM.

When a boy on the lee side of his teens the writer read the life of George Washington by the light of a tallow dip on cold winter evenings until midnight, but in all that was said by his biographer respecting that great and good man not a word was written that tended to convey an idea that Washington, when he was President of the United States, had a policy of government, or a policy in any form that pertained to his office as President.

To be just, it may be admitted that Washington was large enough to be President without a policy. Whatever may have been the cause, it is not recorded in history that he had a policy, or that any President of the United States before McKinley had a policy.

The policy of the country before McKinley and the money power came into control of government was declared by congress, and when declared by that body it became the duty of the executive to enforce the policy framed by it, but we have been recently informed that a change has come in our form of government respecting the manner of declaring its policy, and that congress has been set aside regarding its right to declare a policy of government, and a money-power-one-man policy has been substituted for the time honored course, and legitimate authority of congress in matters of policy, which change, it is claimed, has been endorsed by the people, which is a money power lie.

The substitution of the money-power-one-man policy is a substitution of the will of one man, who by the substitution of his will in matters of policy becomes a ruler, and thereupon he ceases to be a servant of the people and imperialism is a fact.

It is a desire of the writer that the readers of the JOURNAL should understand the principle in government which makes it imperialistic. When the will of a man is the rule of government it is in form and fact imperialistic. Law under that condition is not the rule of government, because the rule of a man's will is the rule by which government is administered. When a public servant, such as is the President of the United States, substitutes his will or method which represents his will for the rule of law that congress is required under our system to prescribe, it is imperialistic in form and in fact.

It is claimed by President McKinley's political friends that his policy is endorsed. Under our system of government President McKinley cannot have a policy—that is, the policy of Mr. McKinley in government, as it is the province of congress to declare either directly or indirectly the policy of the government through law, and should it be true that President McKinley has a policy of his own in government, it is imperialistic, because it is not authorized by law.

When Colonel Monroe was President of the United States a grave question was presented by the action of Spain to our government when it was proposed by that power to subdue the South American states who had by force of arms maintained their independence against Spain. Great Britain who was opposed to Spain at that time applied to the United States for aid to prevent Spain from reacquiring jurisdiction over the South American States. Great Britain was alone in her opposition to Spain who had what was then termed the Holy Alliance as an ally. Britain then had all Europe to oppose her in her policy against Spain.

President Monroe when the difficult question was presented that might include a war with Spain did not deem it necessary that his administration should rise to the dignity of an independent policy. Monroe was a patriot after the old style and he referred the whole matter in a message to Congress and a policy was in truth agreed upon that has taken the name of that patriotic president known as the Monroe Doctrine that has conferred honor upon his country. Should the McKinley doctrine of one man power become fixed and lasting as the Monroe Doctrine the destiny of the United States will close in darkness that will affect the destiny of the race and the whole human family for centuries to come.

England when the Monroe Doctrine had its origin was satisfied with a request made for aid by the United States against Spain. She did not attempt as now to place her form of government or any part of it, upon the United States as the Revolution and the War of 1812 were too recent for such an attempt, and furthermore she was not then in possession of a trained money power to do the work like the money power she now has, and at that time the money power of the United States that is aiding in the work did not have an existence.

THE "JOURNAL" AGREES WITH THE "GAZETTE."

The Gazette is of the opinion that it is as necessary that the President should have a policy as a corporation. That's what's the matter, Allen. It is the corporation system of organized money power that is running the government upon its corporate theories and methods, which explains the policy business of the President; thank you. The Gazette is also of the opinion that Andrew Jackson had a policy when he closed the National bank. The reply to the Gazette's opinion is contained in the fact that President Jackson had no policy that was not authorized by the laws of congress, and that being true the policy was not President Jackson's.

Easy Victims.

One of the members of troop A stated to a JOURNAL scribe yesterday that on the way to Manila they stopped at Hongkong, and that nearly every man on board the transport purchased either a canary bird or parrots, as they supposed, but great was their disappointment when a shower came up while they were en route to the islands and washed all the paint off the birds, showing them to be nothing but chickenhawks and rice birds.

Oh, to think that our Nevada troopers should be such easy victims to the residents of the celestial empire.

A Breach of Promise.

The Opera House was visited last evening by the "Breach of Promise" Company and it proved a very good attraction, in fact, better than the average. The company is full of specialty people and they each do a turn which is entertaining in the highest degree. The play is strictly a farce, and is on a new scale—clean and full of fun. Carson was favored by a good company and those who failed to attend missed a first class performance by a good company.—Appeal.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. McRoss and daughter returned to their home in Virginia yesterday morning.

Sheriff Wilson of Suenaville departed with a prisoner for San Quentin yesterday morning.

Jas. Lucy of Eureka came in on last evening's overland.

Dr. A. Huffaker of Carson went to the city last evening.

Ex-Governor Adams came in from Delamar yesterday and registered at the Riverside.

State Central Committee.

There will be a meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee at the office of William Webster in Reno on Tuesday, December 5, 1899, at 12:30 o'clock P. M. A large attendance is requested as matters of importance will be considered by the Committee.

CHAS. GULLING, Chairman.
J. H. DENNIS, Secretary.

He Fooled the Surgeons.

All doctors told Renick Hamilton of West Jefferson, O., after suffering 18 months from Rectal Fistula, that he would die unless a costly operation was performed; but he cured himself with five boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the surest Pile cure on Earth, and the best Salve in the world. 25 cents a box. Sold by S. J. Hodgkinson, druggist.

A Grape Nut "Baby."

W. A. Desborough, a traveling salesman for the Grape Nut Food Co., is stopping at the Riverside. Mr. Desborough is a living example of the healthful qualities of that food. He weighs 270 pounds and says before using grape nuts his weight was 115 pounds. However, Harry Goeze says he gains weight only while in Reno.

General Assembly.

General Assembly at 11:30 Thursday morning, November 23rd. The addresses will be made by Captain F. M. Linscott, of the Nevada Cavalry, and Captain V. L. Cox, of Troop M, Second U. S. Volunteer Cavalry. Music will be under the direction of Richard Tobin. Public cordially invited.

Look out for Gold-bricks.

Lots of money is being spent in San Francisco to induce the "interior" to take a flyer in the oil stock market with its harvest money. The fever flyers of that kind the interior may take this month and next the more money it will have for Christmas.—Stockton Mail.

Winter Quarters Erected.

Henry Riter has completed a cabin on his iron property three miles north of town. The building will be used this winter by a force of men who will be placed at work extracting ore, which will be used for flux at the Reno Reduction Works.

Will be Buried To-Day.

The funeral of Harry Goldthwait will take place from Perkins' funeral parlors to-day at 10:30 a. m. and that of Juan Ardons at 2 p. m. from the same place.

HAPPENINGS IN VERD

Corporal Bronson of the cavalry is home from war. He has with him a Filipino dog, which was the mascot of troop A.

Property owners are considering a petition to the county dads regarding removal of the calaboose from the middle of a street to a point not so conspicuous.

Walter Hastings was called to Reno last week to lead his old band in the parade.

The box factory has shut down for a couple of weeks to enable the management to put in their new turbin water wheel, which, when completed, will greatly increase their power and 'tis whispered electric lights will supplant oil lamps, now in use in Verdi.

The grand ball to be given by the Knights of Pythias December 8th, is in the hands of the following committee: H. F. O'Connor, J. E. Southerau, E. L. King, A. I. McGrew and H. A. Porter.

Tuesday was payday at the box factory. Nearly two thousand dollars was distributed among the men.

It would be well for the residents of Verdi to subscribe for the JOURNAL as it is placing our town before the public.

James P. Morrill, Verdi's expert on fish, leaves for San Francisco Thursday to consult with the California Fish Commission relative to the taking of Rainbow spaw this coming season.

Mr. Haley of the Nevada Magazine spent Tuesday in Verdi increasing the subscription list of that popular monthly.

Sergeant Chas. Blum, Troop A, spent Monday with his father and friends.

A man named Sweet employed near Verdi met with an accident Wednesday afternoon resulting in the fracture of one of his legs. He was sent to the county hospital in Reno for treatment.

ATHLETIC DOINGS

AT UNIVERSITY.

Thanksgiving Game Being Arranged for—Coach Dickson's New Class.

Arrangements are almost completed to bring off a football game in Reno on the 30th. The San Jose Normals is the name of the eleven that is apt to meet our University boys on the gridiron here. They are well known on the coast, and if the game is played, will undoubtedly draw a large crowd.

The second eleven will perhaps play the Carson Indian school a return game in Carson New Year's day.

Coach Dickson has started a tumbling school in the gym. He has several apt scholars; also a few who are not. Among the latter may be mentioned Ryan and Tobin. Dick is "willin" enough, but for some reason he can't catch on. With a little practice Ryan will make a "star" acrobat—all he needs is a balloon.

A large indebtedness still hangs over the athletic association, which, however, could not be avoided. The association, in securing the services of high class trainers, was compelled to go to a great expense. The games in California, on account of rainy weather, did not pay more than the actual expenses of the team while there. If a Thanksgiving game is arranged for, to take place here, the people of Reno should patronize it liberally. The Nevada State University is an institution in which all patriotic Nevadans have a just pride. To the athletic teams to a great extent depends the publicity that will be given to its advantages. As an example, see what athletics have done for many of the eastern colleges, such as Harvard, Yale, Princeton, etc.

A COLONY OF YONSONS.

Many of That Name in Business in a Wisconsin Town.

"Up in the central part of Wisconsin," said a Chicago traveling man who had got tired talking about the trusts, "there is a town that is inhabited almost exclusively by 'Yonsons.' The name of the man who keeps the hotel is 'Yonson,' the drug store on the corner is owned by a man named 'Yonson,' the proprietor of the establishment that uses our goods is a Mr. 'Yonson,' and I noticed when I was riding up town from the station that the grocer and the butcher were both 'Yonsons.'

"What's the matter here? I said to the bus driver. 'Haven't you any people in this town who don't belong to the 'Yonson' family?'"

"Vall, Ay tank dare been von or two," he replied.

"What's your name? I asked.

"Yonson," he replied.

"I was about to make some further inquiries as to the 'Yonson' family, but at that moment we passed the public laundry, and, looking at the square, red sign above the door, I read:

"'Yip Yonson, Laundry.'"

"Inside the Chinaman who owned the concern was busy ironing and permitting his pigtail to hang down his back. I am almost convinced now that some of those 'Yonsons' are frauds."—Chicago Times-Herald.

Bathing and Nose Blowing.

A number of people come home from the seaside quite deaf, and very many, if not deaf, are much harder of hearing than when they left home. The cause of this is blowing the nose after bathing.

Of course one blows his nose because there is some salt water in it, which makes him uncomfortable. This water he forces into the little eustachian tube that runs from behind the nose to the ear. Here the water remains for days, and the particles of salt set up inflammation. The next step is that the eustachian tube gets blocked and remains more or less so permanently, causing partial deafness.

You should always wait some time after your bath before blowing your nose, and then you should do it gently.

The Way is Life.

Let us not burden our time with trifles and our souls with grievances. We are every one of us good, bad and indifferent in our daily journey, walking with steady or unsteady step directly toward an open grave, and why worry and fret over anything? What is the laurel wreath of fame but a shadow? What is wealth but a bubble? Let us do our duty—the right as God gives us to see the right, with malice toward none, with charity for all.

Weather Forecast.

Furnished by the Chief of the Weather Bureau, under direction of the Secretary of Agriculture. CARSON CITY, November 22—To JOURNAL, RENO: THURSDAY — Fair; colder to-night

THE NEW LONG-DISTANCE TELEPHONE LINE.

Now in Perfect Working Order and Will Prove of Great Advantage to Reno.

Reno is now in direct telephone communication with California, Oregon, Washington and Idaho. The line was completed to Reno Tuesday evening at 5:30, and by 9 o'clock yesterday everything was in smooth running order.

The line just completed covers a distance of about 160 miles, and places Vinton, Plumas Junction, Downsville, Quincy, Sierraville and all intermediate points in direct communication with the outside world.

A JOURNAL reporter visited the office of the company, situated in the Bank of Nevada building, last evening to inspect the workings of the new line. Division Superintendent Kearns placed the entire line at our disposal.

The first place called up was Vinton, where Miss Vinton, the obliging operator, told us "they were still in the land of the living."

From Vinton we were switched on to Downsville, thence to Quincy and from there to Nevada City. Here we "met" a representative of the Grass Valley Union, Mr. Snyder, who, on behalf of the people of that county, bade Reno welcome.

From Nevada City we were switched on to Frisco, the metropolis. Here we were greeted by one who must have been a pretty "hello" girl. Every one of the places mentioned spoke of how glad they were to "see" us.

The line worked perfectly, the voice of the San Francisco party being as plain and clear as if speaking but a few feet away.

A large force of men will at once be placed at work wiring the town and within a month it will be possible to talk to Seattle while sitting in your parlor or office. The telephones now in use will all be replaced by the modern improved long distance phones, an improvement that has long been needed.

Chas. Lake will have entire charge of the management of the line here and Geo. McFarlan will be local superintendent of construction.

The wire used in the construction of the line is called 72-pound copper, that is, a mile of it will weigh 72 pounds. Next spring the Sunset Company intends branching out even further and will establish a line to Carson and Virginia making Reno the central office for a vast net work of telephone lines. The company also intends to form direct communication with Sacramento via Truckee and Colfax.

Division Superintendent Kearns and Manager Lake extend an invitation to the public to visit the office and see the manner in which the telephone business is conducted. It will certainly be interesting.

Announcement.

I have just received a complete line of working and dress shirts of the latest patterns and styles, which I will sell at bedrock prices. I wish to call particular attention to a working shirt I am handling. It is undoubtedly the best working shirt that was ever sold on the Coast for the money. Call and examine the same.

I have all the latest patterns in golf and negligee shirts, in silks and madras cloths.

I am pleased to announce that I have secured the agency of the Wheeler overall, famous on this Coast as being the best fitting and most durable overall on the market. It is riveted, triple-sewed and made of the heaviest and best denim. Try a pair and be convinced.

Free employment office in connection with the store.

ALFRED NELSON.

Did Not Meet.

The meeting of the Red Cross Society and citizens committee announced for yesterday was postponed on account of the failure of many of the committee to be in attendance.

The Red Cross Society held an informal meeting and attended to several urgent matters. It was decided to open a free employment bureau for the soldiers. Pinniger's drug store was selected as the place to have the information office. All people in need of men should apply there. It is also desired that all members of the Nevada battalion wishing employment leave their names and addresses at Pinniger's drug store.

Thanksgiving Ball.

The Thanksgiving ball to be given by the Monumental Hose Company promises to be the dance of the season. Tickets are going fast, and that a large crowd of maskers will be on the floor is assured. A costumer from San Francisco will be here in a few days and those who have no masquerade costume will be afforded an opportunity to select from a large assortment. The prizes on display in Herz Brothers' and Doane's windows are certainly worth trying for.

Wood Business.

There is a boom in the wood business. About 500 cords are being shipped. Nearly all of it is consigned to Reno.

Promising Location.

Charles Trimble, the veteran hunter and prospector has discovered a very promising ledge on Greenhorn creek which he has named the "Cataract."

Several years ago he found the ledge but was unable for a season or two to return to the exact spot. Joe West, Charles Roberts, Joe Bridgman and Charles McHugh have taken interests in the property. The ledge is eight feet thick and said to prospect at a rate of $30 a ton. It is free milling rock. The ledge has been crossed out and shows well defined walls and gouges.

Dr. Patterson of Reno is said to have offered $10,000 for the claim.

Sudden Death.

James Freeman, an old settler and prominent citizen, died under peculiar circumstances last Tuesday.

He left Beckwith after dark to drive to his ranch in the southern part of the valley. That night his horse ran into Loyalton with lines dragging and the buggy empty.

A search party was organized and his body was found in the morning by the road side near the county line. He had evidently been dead some hours. At the inquest it was developed that the deceased was subject to heart disease. In the opinion of the coroner's jury Mr. Freeman was dead before he struck the ground.

The New Beckwith.

Beckwith has about regained the size it was before the great fire. The following buildings have been recently erected:

Store by W. A. McNeil, two story dwelling by Gus Leifer, two story dwelling by C. E. Smith, barn by Peck & Gibson, two story dwelling by F. F. Peck, story and a half dwelling by J. Kelsey, one story dwelling by C. B. Burney.

M. C. Bringham will put up a dwelling house this fall. The S. V. R. R. Company expect to begin its new depot in a few days.

Would Not Suffer so Again for Fifty Times Its Price.

I awoke last night with severe pains in my stomach. I never felt so badly in all my life. When I came down to work this morning I felt so weak I could hardly work. I went to Miller & McCurdy's drug store and they recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It worked like magic and one dose fixed me all right. It certainly is the finest thing I ever used for stomach trouble. I shall not be without it in my home hereafter, for I should not care to endure the sufferings of last night again for fifty times its price.—G. H. WILSON, Livermore, Burgettstown, Washington Co., Pa. This remedy is for sale by W. Pinniger.

A Night of Terror.

"A awful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave General Burnham of Machias, Me., when the doctors said she could not live till morning," writes Mrs. S. H. Lincoln, who attended her that fearful night. "All thought that she must soon die from pneumonia, but she begged for Dr. King's New Discovery, saying it had more than once saved her life, and had cured her of consumption. After three small doses she slept easily all night, and its further use completely cured her." This marvelous medicine is guaranteed to cure all throat, chest and lung diseases. Only 50 cents and $1. Trial bottles free at S. J. Hodgkinson's drug store.

Needed Improvement.

A few days ago the JOURNAL called attention to the poor condition of the sidewalks in Reno—some of them. Yesterday carpenters were at work replacing the old wooden walk in front of S. Levy's on Virginia street. The entire front as far as Second street will be replaced with a substantial plank-ing.

The improvement will be greatly appreciated. There are yet several places where the good work could be continued.

Thanksgiving Festivities.

On the afternoon of Thanksgiving day the sports of Beckwith will participate in a Turkey shoot.

In the evening a ball will be given in the school house. A. P. Laffranchini will serve the supper.

Ready for Winter.

Preparations for a hard winter have been made by the Sierra Valleys railroad people. Drift fences have been built above the deepest cuts and the snow plow rebuilt. The officials do not fear a blockade.

The road has done a good business the past season. There was a big lot of lumber, concentrates, wool, hay, grain, cattle and other Plumas county products moved out.

H. A. Bowen, principal owner of the road, expects to spend the winter in the mountains. This is regarded as significant of something happening in railroad matters, but no one can do more than guess which way the cat is going to jump. It may be that a consolidation will be made with the projected electric road or Mr. Bowen may be arranging to extend his line to Reno at one end and further into the timber at the other.

Rainy Season.

Pleasant weather for cycling. The cold November rain beats against the hotel windows and the roads are so mushy that they squirm and wriggle. There are occasional interruptions in the downpour of rain, the interims being filled in with squalls of snow.

Sierra valley is a good place to sail a yacht race in to-day, but unless a man is an equalist and has puncture proof tires he would better not attempt to scorch along the top of barbed wire fences which line the canals that in summer serve as driveways.

Several Sierra valley ranchers swam into Beckwith to-day. They didn't seem to object to the weather—it is the sort that promises good crops next year.

The encircling hills are covered with a constantly increasing mantle of snow. Residents say that already there is more of "the beautiful" on the summits than fell all last winter.

If Jupiter Pluvius and the Snow King are bringing prosperity to the tiller of the soil, the idling cyclist will withdraw his objection and cease his grumbling.

New Engines.

Two new Baldwin engines arrived in Reno yesterday morning for the N-C-O company. They will be put in use immediately. The increased business of the railroad made this addition necessary. The engines were manufactured by the Baldwin Locomotive Works of Philadelphia and are of the latest model.

Slightly Improved.

The condition of J. R. Dixon, Sr., who for some time has been dangerously ill, was reported to be slightly improved last evening. Mr. Dixon is still a very sick man, however.
